Welcome friends, neighbors, and cattlemen;

The bulls on our 2023 sale have proven to be as tough this winter as all you farmers and ranchers that care for them. It is important to remember that it costs the same to be positive as negative, and when it comes to the weather, that holds true. This set of bulls lives up to the saying; "Not the most, just the best". We were extremely selective in the offering this year to ensure your satisfaction come sale day and beyond.

Our families have endured quite much this past year. That said, anyone who knew John would know that he would tell us all to "Cowboy Up"; and not to dwell. It takes an army to have a bull sale, especially this year. We would not be able to showcase this offering of bulls without the day-to-day work of Garret and Gabe. John and Dan worked their entire lives raising cattle and tremendous pride was taken in the operation they established.

We would like to thank all of our wonderful neighbors, families, and friends alike that have provided assistance to us this past year. We will be indebted to you forever. The humbling feeling of significance and importance you provided us in a trying time will resonate with us as long as we live.
